

Bobcats are short tailed cats which live in woodland and wetland areas. Although small (25 pounds or less), bobcats are powerful carnivores. As agile in trees as on the ground, this nighttime hunter captures all sizes of prey, from birds and mice to deer.